Dear Friends,

Sue and I, like many of you, have had our holiday and it was great to be away enjoying the scenery of such a beautiful country as Norway. Sailing through the fjords was so spectacular.

As we look at the pictures we have taken we can relive the whole experience, we can also bore our family with them!!!!

Whilst away we had the opportunity to meet lots of people, one gentleman had an accent I recognised so after sitting and listening I plucked up the courage to go over and ask where he was from. When they said Ilminster in Somerset I was pleased since I had lived there for about 7 years; it was even more of a surprise when I realised that I had been to school with the man and the woman had been to school with my sister-in-law.

You may say that a similar thing happened to you, well I would not be surprised these coincidences happen all the time.

What I also know is that as a Christian sometimes these special incidences could be called God-incidences, just as if God has planned a meeting or conversation.

It seems that we should be ready for anything always willing to please God wherever we are.

As it says in 2 Corinthians 5:9 "So we make it our goal to please Him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it."

Pray that God will use all our life, work or holidays, to bring others to Him.

God bless you

Peter
